

Dailly Family Scholarship

Further Particulars

This scholarship is made possible thanks to the generosity of Wolfson alumnus Paul Dailly.

Degree type and subject

The Dailly Family Scholarship is open to any applicant who has applied for a doctoral degree at the University of Oxford in the 2026-2027 academic year, with preference given to a student ordinarily resident in Scotland.

Value of award

Course Fees and a grant for living costs for full-time students up to the UKRI Minimum Doctoral Stipend (£20,780 in 2025-26) for the duration of fee liability; part time students will receive a proportional study support grant. Previous Oxford students are advised to check their fee liability on the University's Fees and Funding pages for any applicable adjustments to fee liability resulting from prior study.

Partnership

The scholarship is offered in partnership with the Oxford University Clarendon Fund for 2026-27 entry.

How to apply

There is no separate application process. All applicants should apply to the University of Oxford under the standard procedures for graduate degrees for 2026-27. Applications should be made by the January deadline for your eligible course. If there are two or more candidates of equal academic merit, priority will be given to the candidate who has listed Wolfson as their first choice college on their University application form. The Scholar will become a member of Wolfson College for the duration of their studies.
